

Acrylic Distribution Box Cover

Overview

These custom boxes are made of genuine acrylic, the common name for plexiglass (also called Perspex). It is similar to lucite. All of these materials are types of plastic. Our team at shopPOPdisplays offers personalized service and has a variety of customization capabilities that we offer for our acrylic and plexiglass boxes, including customized sizes, printing, and engraving. We can make your custom acrylic box in any size, in a variety of colors, with any monogram or design you would like on your acrylic display box. There are many benefits to putting your merchandise or collectibles in clear custom acrylic display cases and boxes. They offer protection while also offering a chic look and clear presentation. Your product or item can be easily examined from all angles by your customers and clients. Our Plexiglass (also called Perspex) boxes or cases help keep everything safe. Our acrylic boxes are water resistant but not waterproof. Water-resistant means it can resist water penetration to a certain degree, but not entirely. Waterproof means it is water impermeable, regardless of how much time it spends in water and water pressure. There are many uses for acrylic boxes. Some uses are: 1. Display cases - protect and display valuable items like flags, collectibles, and artwork 2. Ballot boxes - raffles and donations at tradeshows, schools, and places of worship 3. Locking acrylic boxes - display merchandise securely at retail checkouts 4. Dump bins - organize small items while.
